CHAPTER IV JURISDICTION FOR CASES INVESTIGATED OR PROSECUTED BY THE SPRK AND GENERAL REFERRAL OF CASES

Article 13 Jurisdiction for cases taken over by the SPRK

13.1 As soon as the SPRK assumes responsibility for a case and for all the stages of the proceeding after the filing of the indictment if the SPRK is in charge of the investigation or prosecution, the competent court will be identified according to the applicable law.

13.2 After the SPRK has assumed responsibility for the case, all procedural activities and all decisions already undertaken by prosecutors or judges competent for the case will remain valid and in force.

13.3 If reasons of security so require, the competent court identified pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article can sit in a different venue within the territory of Kosovo, pursuant to an authorization of the President of the immediately higher court following the request of the pre-trial judge, of the three-judge panel or of the President of the panel. The new venue will be communicated to the parties of the proceedings without delay.

Article 14 Referral of cases by the SPRK during the proceeding and review procedure

14.1 If the Head of the SPRK believes that there are no grounds for the SPRK to exercise its exclusive or subsidiary competence, at any time during the proceeding but before the indictment becomes final, the Head of the SPRK will return the criminal reports or the case with all the relevant documents and files received pursuant to paragraph 4 of Article 6 Article or paragraph 7 of Article 10 of this Law, or taken according to paragraph 3 of Article 5 or paragraph 1 and 2 of Article 12 of this law, to the Chief Prosecutor of the office that has competence over the case. The Head of the SPRK will also include the other documents collected in the course of the eventual further investigation carried out by Special Prosecutors.

14.2 The Head of the SPRK will include a written decision to the documents subject to the referral along with all the material and evidence collected in the course of the investigation that justify his or her decision.

14.3 All procedural activities and decisions undertaken by Special Prosecutors and by the competent court prior to the referral of the case pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article will remain valid and in force.

14.4 In the case envisaged in paragraph 1 of this Article, the relevant Chief Prosecutor will return the criminal reports or the case with all the documents and files to the competent prosecutor according to the applicable law, as soon as possible, and in any case within a general deadline that will be established by the Chief Public Prosecutor of Kosovo.

The Chief Prosecutor who requested the review will include a copy of the decision of the Head of the SPRK with the documents sent for purpose of review. The same day the request for review is filed, the relevant Chief Prosecutor will send a copy of the request for review to the Head of the SPRK. The same prosecutor will be responsible for conducting the criminal proceeding if the Chief Public Prosecutor of Kosovo confirms the decision of the Head of the SPRK taken according to paragraph 1 of this Article.

14.9 All decisions taken by the judicial authorities that would be competent to adjudicate the case prior to the decision of the Chief Public Prosecutor of Kosovo over the request for review will remain valid and in force.

14.10 At any time during the proceeding but before the indictment becomes final, the case or investigation that the SPRK has already returned pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article will be referred back to the SPRK pursuant to the provisions set forth in the present law if new elements or newly discovered facts reasonably lead to believe that the SPRK should exercise its exclusive or subsidiary competence.

14.11 The Head of the SPRK will refer back to the Chief Prosecutor of the Office that will have competence over the case, the same case previously referred according to the provisions set forth in paragraph 1 of this Article, if new elements or newly discovered facts reasonably lead to believe that there are no grounds for the SPRK to exercise its exclusive or subsidiary competence.
